

Pat Coluzzi has been a downtown Rehoboth Beach resident for the past 15 years and been very involved in the Rehoboth Beach Community. She served as a Rehoboth Beach City Commissioner for 6 years from 2007 to 2013. She is the founder and manager of the Rehoboth Beach Farmers' Market which is now in its 12th year. The Market brings in substantial revenues for local farmers and was chosen as one of the top 20 farmers' markets in the country. You can see her there every Tuesday. She also is the President of the RB Sister Cities Association and was instrumental in the installation of the Sister City Garden on Olive Street in Downtown Rehoboth Beach. This garden was a part of a garden exchange project with Rehoboth Beach's sister city Greve, Italy. The project won an international award from Sister Cities International. Most recently, she was appointed by Speaker of the House, Peter Schwartzkopf as his representative on the Board of Directors of the Delaware Center for the Inland Bays.
